Artist Biography

Pablo Bronstein (b.1977)

Pablo Bronstein was born in Argentina in 1977, he now lives and works in London. He studied at the Slade School of Fine Art and graduated from Goldsmiths College in 2004. His body of work, which is often humorous, includes drawings, prints, choreography and performance art - all inspired by architecture. His intricate studies of historical/ pseudo historical European design and architecture depict ideas of social aspiration, identity and wealth representation.
