Artist Biography

Patrick Caulfield (1936-2005)

Patrick Caulfield studied at Chelsea School of Art and the Royal College of Art between 1956-1963. He later taught at the Chelsea School of Art for eight years. Caulfield was awarded the Jerwood Painting Prize in 1995, and obtained an Order of the British Empire in 1996. He was also shortlisted for The Turner Prize in 1987. His work is characterized by a reductive, streamlined use of line, and banal, everyday objects saturated in colour. Caulfield died in 2005, having made an indelible contribution to British painting and printmaking.
